

Take a closer look at Changes in Childcare

Funded Early Education Entitlement (FEEE)

Funded Early Education Entitlements are expanding!

Announced by the Chancellor in Spring 2023 as part of the Childcare Reforms Expansion, this will help enable more parents and carers in/back to work.

What do these expansions to Funded Early Education Entitlements mean for you and your family?

From April 2024, eligible working parents will be able to access up to 15 hours of funded childcare from the term after their child turns two-years-old.

In September 2024, the offer will extend further, and eligible working parents will be able to access up to 15 hours of funded childcare the term after their child turns 9-months-old.

From September 2025, eligible working parents will be entitled to up to 30 hours of childcare a week from the term after their child turns 9-months-old.

Find out more about the support you may be eligible for and how you can access a funded place here:

www.essex.gov.uk/children-young-people-and-families/early-years-and-childcare